Wood Lisa Foley Hoag LLP

Foley Hoag LLP

The Firm: Foley Hoag's antitrust practice continues to flourish. The department works closely with the IP team, advising on antitrust issues as part of patent due diligence. It also collaborates with the firm's white-collar defense lawyers, representing clients in criminal antitrust investigations: its lawyers are presently defending a defense contractor executive in a criminal antitrust investigation brought by the DOJ and the Department of Defense. The team has been heavily involved in consumer protection litigation of late and is currently representing defendants in several putative class actions pending in state court alleging antitrust and violations of Chapter 93A.

The Lawyers: Litigator Lisa Wood focuses on a variety of matters including antitrust, securities fraud and accountant liability. She has represented numerous Fortune 500 companies on federal securities and antitrust issues.

Clients/Work Highlights: The team is advising a mutual fund trader on a putative class action alleging antitrust and commodities fraud violations. Clients of the firm span a range of industries, including retail, food and manufacturing.
